2 ARE KILLED

Paul Othard and Ray Ginter were killed in Oxford, Mississippi, on Sunday, Sept. 30.

According to the U. S. Defense Department, at 12:01 a.m. Sunday President John F. Kennedy (the time nobody believes) signed a proclamation declaring the state of Mississippi for the correction against the United States Government and used three Civil War statutes as his authority.

The statutes involved, whose authority is questionable, are Sections 332, 333 and 334 of Title 10, Chapter 15 of the United States C.A.D. Code Annotated.

MTF manager, engineer are announced this week

Two top personnel appointments were made this week on NASA's Hancock County test site moved nearer reality following announcement last week that some $500 million will be expended on the installation.

Capt. William C. Fortune, USN, a veteran engineer and Navy aviator, has been named project manager for the facility. Dr. Warburton von Braun, Marshall Space Flight Center, director, announced.

Meanwhile the Army Corps of Engineers has designated John R. Matsumura as engineer in charge of the facility on construction work approaches.

Matsumura, supervisory construction management engineer from the Mobile district, will temporarily operate out of the Corps' local real estate office on Main Street until quarters are provided at the site. His present phone numbers are HO7-5479 and HO7-5470. He has been in the area frequently for two weeks but announcement of the appointment was not made until yesterday.

Fortune, 51, has been assigned to NASA by arrangement with the Navy Department. He has been commanding officer, Naval Air Test Facility (Ship Installation), Lakehurst, N. J.

Fortune will establish an office at the Mississippi Test Facility where he will be Marshall's chief agent in coordinating the planning and construction of the facility, where engines and stages for the Saturn-Apollo moon rocket will be tested. His office will be a part of the Center's Facilities Engineering Office.

On active duty since his graduation from the U. S. Naval Academy in 1933, Fortune has had wide experience in research and development operations, mainly in aeronautics and rocketry. He holds BS and MS degrees in electrical and environmental engineering from the Naval Academy and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He helped design the launcher for the V-2 which was fired from (Cont. on Page 12.)

First condemnation cases enter court on test site

The federal government has acquired title to 143.79 acres in 13 tracts of land in Hancock County for the Mississippi Test Facility through court action, O. B. Moore, project manager of the Corps of Engineers real estate project office here, reported this week.

A declaration of taking was filed Sept. 25 in U. S. District Court in Biloxi, and $136,520 was deposited in the registry of the court representing the government's estimate of just compensation for the taking of the land for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration project.

The court action resulted from inability of the government and the landowners to reach agreement as to land values in some cases and because of defective title conditions in other instances.

This is the first court action—or condemnation proceeding—to actually acquire title to the land in the fee area. The proceeding filed last Oct. 25, merely established the limits of the project.

Several more condemnation assemblies are being processed for early filing. The U. S. Marshal will serve the landowners with notice of the proceedings.

Even after condemnation proceedings are filed, a case may be settled without going to trial through the entering of a stipulation on the court records, whereby the government and the landowner agree on the amount to be paid.

The court cases in the project are being handled by Robert E. Hamberg, U. S. Attorney, or his assistant, Edwin R. Holmes, both of Jackson, working closely with the Corps of Engineers.

In some of the tracts numerous heirs or trustees are involved but named as principal defendants in this group of cases were Valerie Fernon Jordan, Mrs. Audrey W. Hart, Percy Peters, Mary Latuso Schindler, John A. Grice, Loya Lee A. Smith Andrews, Lemuel Miller, Tommy Patch, Harbin L. Miller, Freeman Davis, Charles Acker, Jr., Grayson L. Miller and Wallace J. Cameron.

134th recalled again

The 134th Transportation Company, St. Louis' National Guard unit, mobilized again Sunday, almost one year to the day since it was called into active service because of the Berlin crisis.

This time the 134th was federalized by President Kennedy in response to the Meredith incident in Oxford, Miss., said the commanding officer, said the word went out at 2 a.m. Sunday and men were immediately called to report to the army where they have spent most of the time since training on the handling of civil disturbances.

Kingston, who is now employed with the weather bureau at Lake Charles, La., arrived back Sunday night to take charge and said special teams have been sent in to show the men how to equal riot without hurting anyone or getting hurt.

At press time Wednesday, the CO said there was no change in the presidential stand-by order and no orders to move to another location.

Southerners and mostly Mississippians at heart, indications are that the men of the 134th who returned in August after 10 (Cont. on Page 7.)

Teen Times

This is be kind to teachers week—not nationally, or even state-wide, but we're instituting the observance locally to express gratitude to the noble, long suffering men and women who have taken over teaching and discipline after parents have had their hands full for three whole months.

Even teachers have their bad moments—in one school after an especially rough day, a new and very young math instructor staggered into the teacher's lounge, fell exhausted into a chair and remarked: "There are a couple of little demons I'd like to shove off an 8,000 foot cliff", several others nodded agreement, when the oldest member of the crew, thoroughly familiar with the quirks and ingenuity of young minds, said—"I'd settle for one only 500 feet high—that way the little stinkers couldn't have as much chance of learning to fly!"

We'll be quick to add that the above remark was NOT made by anyone at a local institution of learning. . . but perhaps it will make some of you do a bit of thinking and show your teachers some sympathy—after all, when they spend hours, days, weeks and months trying to instill a little knowledge into your rocky heads, . . . it's for your benefit, not theirs—they get paid the same salary then you make an F or an A.

Sports again seems to be the number one subject in minds of most teen-agers—an enormous crowd turned out to watch Bay High trample neighboring North Central 46-12 in a cloud of dust at Stanislaus stadium Friday night. Just about every member of the Tiger squad saw action before the final whistle blew, J. P. Compretta, who spent Thursday and Friday at home suffering from pleurisy, apparently made a miraculous recovery, scoring twice during the game. The squad must have been practicing conversions making four out of seven extra points.

Some of those enjoying the game were Millie Usher, home from Southern, former drum major, Betty Smith, Dianne Carr, Marietta Schwartz and steady beau, Rev. Dale Lyons, Glenda Kennedy, Lana Taylor, Johnny Kramer, the latter three all home from P.R.C. for the weekend, Faye Monti, Ellen Colson, Mary Beth Ladner and of course just about the whole Bay High student body.

Others followed the Stanislaus Rockchaws to Picaune only to watch the home town boys box 33-0.

Winter bowling leagues are now getting underway—Bantam bowlers began Friday afternoon, Juniors on Saturday morning. Waveland Roller Rockers skating club met last Sunday night at the Waveland Roller Rink to make plans for their fall and winter parties.

J. F. Auderer, Jr., arrived home for a weekend from L.S.U. Others coming home for college included Pearl River students, Linda Mazarakis, J. D. Bourgeois, Clyde Bourgeois, Randle Grigsby and Kenny Devello-Carol Western, Ann Bryant, Cleo Moran and Buddy Saux enjoyed their first free weekend—last week was closed campus at Southern.

Last week we commented on the gratifying improvement in make-up of local girls—however, we must mention that when it comes to bizarre hair styles—they appear to be getting worse instead of better. . . on a very few, a modified bouffant hairstyle isn't too bad—and we realize they're the rage in Hollywood and New York—and on television, they're lovely—but such exaggerated styles require daily setting by a professional hairdresser and if some girls would take a good look at the back of their heads in a mirror and note the rat's nest effect, I'm sure

PINK LADIES HONORED - Mrs. Luther Crull, right, state chairman of hospital auxiliaries, chats with several members of Hancock General Hospital auxiliary at awards luncheon Monday for which she was guest speaker. From left are Mrs. A. J. Ramage, Jr., who made the presentations, Mrs. Clem Penrose, Mrs. A. I. Bruff and Miss Henrietta Mohr, all of whom received 100-hour pins and 50-hour certificates.

Service pins given hospital auxiliary

Nineteen 100-hour pins and 33 50-hour certificates were presented to members of Hancock General Hospital auxiliary at an awards luncheon Monday at the Gordon Center recognizing volunteers' services at the hospital.

Mrs. Luther Crull, state president of the hospital auxiliary association, was speaker for the occasion, discussing the role played by the Pink Ladies in making the patients' stay in a hospital more pleasant and their relationship to the overall operation of such institutions.

Mrs. A. J. Ramage, first vice president, presented awards as follows: 100-hour pins—Mesdames A. I. Bruff, Henry Chapman, Wallace Chevis, Roy Dennis, H. A. Gilmore, John A. Kelly, Albert Kuehn, Mary Newcome, C. L. Newton, Allan Ortes, Marion Oiestad, Winthrop Partridge, Clem Penrose, Ramage, A. P. Smith, George Stevenson, W. R. Santler and Misses Henrietta Mohr and Kathleen Renshaw.

50-hour certificates—Mesdames Bruff, Ivan Bradford, they would break all records dashing to the beauty shop for something drastic, like maybe a crew cut, which at least would appear neater.

The faculty and students of St. Joseph Academy are justifiably proud of their mathematics department—last May 20 pupils from the sophomore, junior and senior classes entered a national mathematics contest; when the results were recently announced the group rated among the top 10 per cent nation-wide.

Dennis Necaise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Necaise of Waveland, received a special safety award for one year of accident free truck driving at Beeville, Texas, where he is stationed with the U. S. Army. Dennis recently returned to Beeville after spending several weeks under observation for ear trouble at Brooks Hospital, San Antonio, Texas.

Birthday greetings to Ellen Western, who is also welcomed to Teen Times—she's 13 today, Oct. 4, and to Aggie Bourgeois who also celebrates on the 4th.

Happy 16th birthday Carol Sanna. . . she big day was Monday, Oct. 1st, 15 guests joined her at a party Saturday night at her home to celebrate the occasion in advance.

Bay High seniors were measured for class rings Monday. Pearl River Junior College students will be interested to discover that a spanking new bus leaves Bay High School at 6:30 a.m. each Monday for Poplarville and returns around 5:15 p.m. Friday. Students traveling home for the weekend are allowed to bring luggage with them.

Shower honors Jewel Bilbo

Miss Jewel Bilbo, whose marriage to Kenneth Lively will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday at our Lady of the Gulf Church, was honored at a linen and lingerie shower by Misses Sandra Seamus and Betty Noto at Miss Noto's parents home on Second Street Sunday afternoon.

The centerpiece of the serving table was a bride doll flanked with members of Bay-Waveland Garden Club and flowers from the speaker's table were taken afterwards to the hospital.

Bishop opens new vocation program

A new Catholic adult education program for vocations to the priesthood and sisterhood was launched last week in the Diocese of Natchez-Jackson. Msgr. James Hannon, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, reports.

Sponsored by Most Rev. Richard Oliver Geroy, bishop of Natchez-Jackson, and directed by Rev. John Scanlon, director of vocations for the diocese, the program will be operated on a "parish saturation" basis. All adult parishioners attending mass in the Catholic churches of the area are being given booklets, parents, You Have the Church's Future in Your Home. Another booklet, to be distributed in October, is Questions Parents Ask About Vocations.

Ten booklets which will be distributed at the rate of one a month from September through June, designed to alert Catholic parents to every aspect of the vocation problem, and to answer their questions.

The Catholic population of the country has increased more than 47 per cent during the past ten years alone. Vocations to the priesthood and the religious life are increasing, but not at the same rapid rate. This is causing concern to those looking toward the future development of the growing church in the Diocese of Natchez-Jackson, and in America.

New Mexican group St. Joseph takes vows here

The newly approved Mexican congregation of the LaSalle Oblates of Guadalupe enjoyed another first last Sunday. Sister Amelia, and Sister Maria Dolores, both O.L.G. pronounced their perpetual vows in the main chapel of St. Augustine Seminary, the first time that members of new congregation took perpetual vows outside of their native Mexico.

Five other sisters renewed their temporary vows for one year. The officiating prelate was Most Rev. George Bernarding, S.V.D., D. D., Vicar Apostolic of Mt. Hagen, New Guinea.

Before a chapel filled with priests, brothers, sisters, seminarians and the laity these Mexican sisters inspired all by their very impressive profession, according to the congregation's new ceremonial.

After the two sisters made their total dedication to the Blessed Trinity as spouses of Jesus Christ, Bishop Bernarding gave them their rings, crucifixes, and crowns, all of which symbolize their determination to be faithful to their vows of poverty, chastity and obedience for life—because of their love of God and the salvation of souls.

The Hermenes Oblates Lo-Salones Guadalupeans were founded in Mexico City 16 years ago for the purpose of doing domestic work in schools, and colleges, and seminaries, and teaching catechism to poor children. Formerly known as a Pious Union, they received diocesan approbation from Rome on June 1, 1962. The Mother General, her council, and all the local superiors (Sister Basilia, O.L.G., local sister superior here, included) took perpetual vows in Mexico City on Sept. 12, 1962, as the primates of Mexico officiated.

The sisters came to this seminary in April, 1960 and have been in charge of the kitchen and laundry ever since. They inspire all by their excellent religious spirit, devotedness to duty, and their cheerfulness.

They also have other houses in Winona, Minn.; Memphis, Tenn.; Santa Fe, N. Mex.; and Rome. At present the new Congregation has over 150 professed

A COURT of LAST RESORT

OPEN LETTER TO GOVERNOR ROSS BARNETT:

A million Mississippians sympathetic with the courageous stand you have taken against overwhelming odds to safeguard the sovereignty of Mississippi under Federal and State Constitutions, defend the independence and uphold the dignity of its citizenship, fully realize that they cannot obtain justice under an autocratic administration and a prejudiced United States Supreme Court.

Under the circumstances, I wonder if we could not take our cause before the only other tribunal available within our domain, the United Nations.

The United Nations, now in control of freedom-loving Africans and Asiatics, has gone all over the globe to give all peoples under the heel of autocratic government political relief. Even half-civilized, cannibalistic, sub-human tribes have brought their grievances before this tribunal to gain their independence. None of these, under colonialism, has been subjected to any more pressure, persecution and prosecution than the people of Mississippi.

In his preamble to the Declaration of Independence, the incomparable Thomas Jefferson stated:

"When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with one another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation."

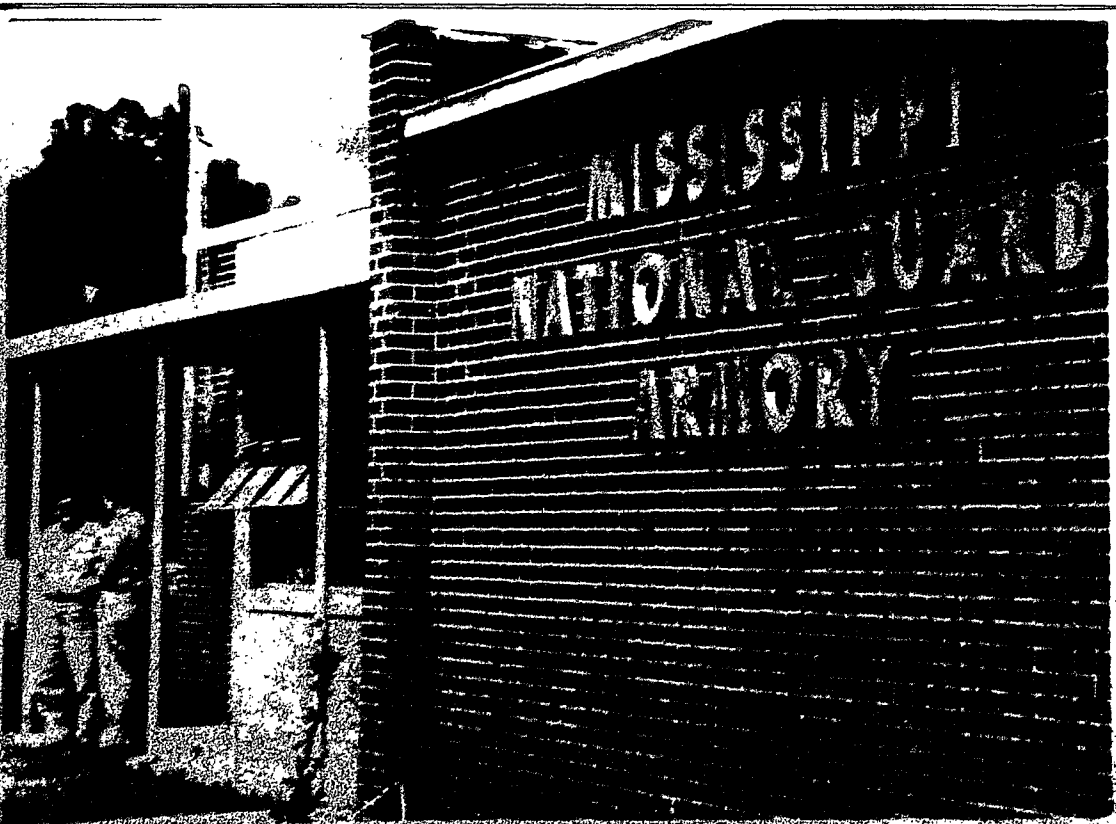

If a little island like Jamaica, which has thrived for 300 years under the beneficence of Great Britain, can gain its freedom, is there any reason why the sovereign state of Mississippi, with two million souls, should continue to suffer the insults of a government which periodically, for 100 years, has done everything it can to keep its people under a servitude often more humiliating than Mississippians ever exercised over their one-time slaves?

If the United Nations can seat Ghana, Gabon and Guinea, how could it refuse Mississippi? If the United Nations can receive Fidel Castro and Moise Tshombe with open arms, could it refuse to hear Governor Ross Barnett?

Has any servile dependency been given as much abuse as Mississippi by an arrogant and tyrannical federal government? Is the USA to become a gestapo state?

Maybe the United Nations which has so far served no good purpose is Mississippi's court of last resort.

MISSISSIPPI NATIONAL BOARD ANNUARY - Capt. Wm. K. ...

On HGH, Oxford, etc. Our readers write

Editor, Star-Post Echo:
The excellent letter and poem was written by a 72-year old colored woman recently admitted to our hospital, this is the second poem she has written.

Che's love is all around that place
They start in to try to make you better
And always greet you with a smiling face.

The women are marching just like soldiers
I guess they're seeing to the people's life
Everybody knows what are the orders.
The orders might be to de-sever pills!

I wish I could name each one who work there
From white entrance to all the greens and blues
Those folk who work at Hancock General Hospital
Really know their "P" and all their "Q's".
MRS. ALMA J. MITCHELL
Logtown.

Editor, Star-Post Echo:
I was just recently connected with the Hancock General Hospital and have accepted a position with The Vicksburg Hospital and Clinic here in Vicksburg and am making my home here now. My immediate superior and Administrator of the Vicksburg Hospital and Clinic is Mr. Dean Andrews, immediate past president of the Mississippi Hospital Association.

I shall always have fond memories for Bay St. Louis and Waveland and most of all the Hancock General Hospital.

With kindest regards, I am
Sincerely yours,
MRS. MARJORIE HEDRICK
Vicksburg.

Editor, Star-Post Echo:
Let's give credit where credit is due. Condemnation is easy to come by but praises are few. Residents of Clermont Harbor have no organized fire department, nor equipment, only private water faucets and courage of its people. This is very hazardous for people in that area who have thousands of dollars of improvements in this fine little Hancock County community.

Who has been their protector? Mayor Garfield Lader and his Waveland Volunteer FIRE Department, who risk personal safety and equipment to answer fire distress calls in this community, as a good neighbor. No remuneration is asked, none given. No praise or thanks are asked, but some should be given! It is not uncommon to see this mayor of the Gulf Coast physically helping and directing fire fighting operations.

The Clermont Harbor Civic Assn. deems it an honor to publicly praise and thank Mayor Garfield Lader, Buddy Dufour (president of the Waveland FIRE Volunteer Department), Mrs. Gladys Noonan, secretary-treasurer, Fire Chief Wallace Bourgeois and the entire staff of the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department, for the unselfish assistance given and the wonderful display of good neighborhood.

This much needed cooperation and comfortable feeling of assured assistance is deeply appreciated by all residents of Clermont Harbor.

Respectfully,
CLERMONT HARBOR CIVIC ASSN.
RUSSELL J. ELLIOTT
Secretary.

Editor, Star-Post Echo:
Publish the enclosed if you see fit to do so.
DR. J. F. FARGASON.

Hon. John F. Kennedy
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. President:
The National Aeronautics and Space Administration coming through their land procurement agents, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers Facility in Hancock County, Mississippi, has literally cheated or is trying to cheat several of our good colored citizens out of their property in the area. Some of them have been left completely destitute as a result of the ridiculously low values received for their lands and homes. The Negroes herein referred to are all good, quiet, hard working citizens who have lived through the years in neighborly friendship with the white people of the community.

You well know of the tragic events in our state in the past few days, events that are creating an ever widening and very possible unresolvable rift between the races. This deplorable and wretched state of affairs is made even more regrettable in view of the fact that our race relations were good and were steadily improving.

Why does the federal government just sit back and do nothing and spend millions of dollars of the taxpayers money and resources to aid to our people, both white and colored, but not to give the best objective of placing our Negro on the rolls of our State University?

Plant 'em now for tomorrow's enjoyment and, on the other hand, in the forced acquisition of the homes and lands of the people of this area, pay some of them, regardless of race, values so low as to make them paupers?

Very truly yours,
J. F. FARGASON, M.D.
Chairman, Mississippi Test Site Property Owners Committee.

Editor, Star-Post Echo:
Observations on the present scene:
It is ironic that the same arm of the Federal government which invaded Mississippi to assure Meredith's rights under the constitution, violated the same rights by their seizure and banishment of General Walker to the American Siberian brain camp!

A new definition of a coverage comes: 'a figure of speech.'

Bay pushes request for water job aid

Completion of Bay St. Louis' application for federal aid on its water and sewer expansion project occupied City Commission Council at its meeting Monday.

Mayor John A. Scatfield said he hoped the balance of the necessary information could be ready by the weekend to forward the application to Jackson and then Atlanta for assistance under the Area Redevelopment Administration. The city's consulting engineer, William E. Johnson, has been assisting the county chamber of commerce sponsored committee in assembling the data.

The major also reported to his colleagues on the conference he attended in Washington, D.C., last week as representative of the Mississippi Municipal Assn. on the accelerated public works program recently enacted by Congress. Applications for aid under this statute probably will begin to be taken in January.

Eight requests for adjustment to property assessments were considered and two allowed. Council also considered the balance were not out of line with adjacent property and other factors involved.

Council also adopted a resolution authorizing the borrowing of $30,000 in anticipation of taxes, routine procedure at the start of a fiscal year.

Commissioner of Utilities J. Cyril Glover reported the water works department has started running the four-inch main from the Hancock General Hospital storage tank to the north side of North Bay Elementary School to serve the school, new athletic field facilities, etc., as recently authorized by the board of supervisors.

Do not touch an electric wire to hold it up so that you can drive a nail machine under it. NOT EVEN WITH A STICK! Do not operate a motor without having the frame well grounded.

The Mississippi Veterans of Foreign Wars led the nation for the second consecutive year in new membership in 1961, marking the first time in the history of the 63-year-old organization that a state led for two years in succession.

ARMY TRAIN - The 134th was among Mississippi National Guard units federalized Sunday to support administration plans to integrate Ole Miss. This is no close as an armory could get to take pictures of the men as they were trained on the art of quelling riotous in case they have to be sent to Oxford to force fellow Mississippians to accept the philosophy.

Harbor Construction Co. has copies of two letters to the board requesting conferences with Enoch Kennedy, engineer, in reference to the work on St. Joseph

The company, whose contract was Oct. 18, contends it cannot release until Kennedy makes arrangements for crabs for subdivisions on the street and main streets and grades so that and surfacing may be completed, adding that trenches in the street will leave the street unless fill is added and surfacing is done. Subdivisions drainage was not included in the Bosworth written contract. Kennedy, who had stated he would attend the meeting, but was not present, was contacted by attorney Dan M. McCall, Jr., and said he would meet with the Bosworth representative and council at 7:30 p.m. today.

John Longo representing a committee of three appointed by the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department to make a survey of needed fire-plugs for the town displayed a map pin-pointing existing outlets and planned locations for 65 additional plugs which would leave no house on an existing water line more than 600 feet from a plug. Other committee members were Cornelius Herlihy and Adam Russell. The board will take the matter under advisement and more is known about engaging the water system, considering that the work would have to be done again when larger lines are installed.

A. Thompson also reported the results of conferences with a number of residents in each ward, suggesting volunteers in each ward. This too was taken under advisement and the meeting recessed until Thursday.

Four deputies dispatched

Sheriff Gerald V. Price declared this week that the situation at Oxford is "no reflection on the race relations in Hancock County."

Four of his deputies were summoned to the north Mississippi college town over the weekend to control the tense situation. Deputies Luther Nodda and Donald Marquar went to Oxford Friday night and returned Saturday night, acting as reserves.

Marquar and Deputy Gerard Freeman and Luke Marich were among members of a convoy from Harrison County which departed Sunday but were called back just short of their destination on the governor's orders when Barnett capitulated to the federalists.

Besides interrupting the routine of business houses, the stand-by order has complicated the educational procedure in Bay St. Louis. Three Bay High School instructors, Franklin Lodner, Wilmer Seymour and William Sharp, are among the guardsmen called up.

LAKE SHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

HO 7-5818

There will be a benefit horse show Sunday, starting at 1 p.m., on the grounds of the Church of the Assumption up at Kilm. Funds are needed to help open a parochial school there, according to Arthur Miller who is helping Wesley Haas. This promises to be one of the biggest and best shows staged in some time as entries have been received from many states. Food and cold drinks will be served, so get out early and get a good seat.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Herbert DeGracious entertained in her new home with a short shower honoring her niece, Mrs. Marvin May, the former Gloria LaFontaine. The secret was well kept for Gloria almost fainted when she walked in for what she thought was just a little visit. Mrs. Lynn Rutherford of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. Milton Coufflet, cousin of the honoree, assisted the hostess in serving. Guests besides those mentioned included Mesdames Monroe LaFontaine, Gloria's mother, Malcolm Green, Nicholas Schwartz, Delbert Sany, Eric Lozano, Glover Green, Melanio Garcia, Larry La Fontaine, and Mrs. McCune and Thurston of New Orleans.

So many of our friends and neighbors are hospitalized, Mrs. Mary La Fontaine has been a patient in Sara Mayor Hospital in New Orleans, for the past two weeks and is reported to be getting along nicely. Mrs. Julia Nacaise is back in Hancock General as is Mrs. Lillian McCarty. Julia has had major surgery and Lillian is expecting a second trip. I wish all a speedy recovery.

Happy 11th birthday to little Miss Renda Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spence who celebrated Sept. 27.

On Saturday Jim and Geraldine Ingersoll drove to New Orleans for a visit with Geraldine's mother, Mrs. Mary La Fontaine, who is in Sara Mayor Hospital.

The sympathy of our community is extended to the bereaved family of Mary Jo Knepp of Clermont Harbor.

by SJA parents club

New members were introduced when the St. Joseph Academy Parents Club met at 2 p.m. Tuesday, October 2. A white elephant sale to be held Nov. 17 in the basement of the convent was discussed and plans were made for the annual spaghetti supper from 5 until 9 p.m., Oct. 25, at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Sister Ursula led a discussion on modern mathematics. Sister Eugenie closed the meeting with a prayer.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

St. Clare's fair workers honored

The Holy Name Society of St. Clare's Parish was host Sunday to the fair workers of the parish, at a barbecue picnic lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, on Merritt Drive.

Approximately 75 workers and members of their families attended the annual affair and enjoyed the delicious luncheon prepared by Dave Markey, assisted by Mrs. Markey, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Balaski and Mrs. C. K. Herlihy.

Rev. John T. O'Brien, pastor, and James Lagasse, general chairman of the fair, expressed their appreciation to the workers for their cooperation and the success of the fair.

M/Sgt. Jesse C. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Mitchell, R. 2, Piquette, recently reenlisted in the Regular Army while serving as a maintenance specialist in the 504th Signal Battalion's Headquarters Detachment in Mannheim, Germany. Sergeant Mitchell entered the Army in 1941 and was stationed at Tobyhanna, Pa., before arriving overseas on this tour of duty in August, 1961. The sergeant, whose wife, Eva, is with him in Germany, is a graduate of Kilm Vocational High School and attended Pearl River Junior College.

ACES HOLE

Mrs. James Durham of Felicita Street scored a hole in one Sept. 21 at City Park No. 2 golf course in New Orleans while playing with Mac Baxter and Martha Loeschner. She used a seven iron on the 118-yard 15th hole. The previous week on the same hole Mrs. Durham's ball hit the pin and came to rest about three feet away from where she got a 2.

Stanislaus girds for CHS challenge

St. Stanislaus prepares for one of the most important games of the 1967 football season this week, following a 35-0 defeat by Piquette of the Big Eight Conference, Catholic High of Baton Rouge invades the local town Friday night, and although neither Stanislaus nor Catholic High has a winning record, the importance is that the visiting coach is Reuben Ruiz, Rockchaw chief's year ago.

Stanislaus was outclassed by a good Piquette eleven, although head coach Billy Murphy termed the Rock performance a better one than the showing two weeks ago when St. Francis De Sales posted a 7-0 upset triumph in a game played at Houma.

Piquette scored three quick touchdowns in the second quarter, all with the aid of breaks, after Murphy's charges had fought the favored Tide yard-for-yard in the opening period. Piquette pushed across single touchdowns in the third and fourth stanzas to toe the victory.

The Rocks didn't cross the Piquette goal line, but displayed an improved offensive attack.

TO FISHERIES MEET

Joseph V. Calton, chairman of the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission, has been named to the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Assn. and will attend the convention at Dauphin Island, Ala., Oct. 18-19.

Lester Hoover, candidate for supervisor of Hancock County, District 1, to serve the unexpired term of the late Charles A. Reed, Jr.

I am now serving a four-year term as Justice of the Peace, I was born and reared in Hancock County. I attended Loggins Elementary School and Bay High School. My wife is the former Marietta Favre of Bay St. Louis. I have three children, Robert, Linda and Dustin. My wife's younger brother, Al Favre, whose mother and father died four years ago, lives with us.

Three years ago my many friends and neighbors chose me for the office of Justice of the Peace and I am grateful to each and all for supporting me. At that time I polled more votes than any other candidate on the ballot. For the last two and one-half years I faithfully served just as I promised. In fulfilling my promises I ran my office honestly and justly without partiality. In doing so and at the same time provide a living for my family, it has been necessary for me to leave other employment and, since I preferred to work outside the area of my judicial authority, I worked as an electric welder in New Orleans and at Pascagoula.

As your supervisor I will run the district office to the best of my ability and on a sound business basis. Furthermore my effort will be on a full-time basis, knowing that supervisor's job is a very important one. It is understood that the person chosen to fill this office of supervisor must be honest and capable. I know that you agree that I have these qualifications.

Darwood Gardens Sentence 3 as term concludes sale in litigation

A hearing was scheduled in U. S. District Court at St. Louis Wednesday in a $463,605 damage suit filed by Raymond B. Colby, Crystal Lake, Ill., developer, against Dr. Emmett L. Irwin of New Orleans and Lucien M. Gex, trustee. They were ordered to show cause why a temporary injunction should not be issued against them as Colby requested.

Colby asked the court to restrain the defendants from foreclosing on a deed of trust involving Darwood Gardens in Hancock County before the present litigation is concluded.

Colby alleges that he and Dr. Irwin entered an agreement in May, 1960, in which it was agreed that Dr. Irwin would sell Darwood Gardens to Colby for $250,000. Plaintiff alleges that the size of the property was misrepresented in the sale.

He also alleges that Dr. Irwin made false affidavits against him last February in a justice of peace court in Hancock County, resulting in his arrest on charges of trespass and grand larceny.

He further states that Dr. Irwin's testimony before the grand jury last month led to his indictment on an embezzlement charge.

Budget hike seen on school athletic $$

An upward revision in athletic fund budget was indicated when the Hancock North Central School Superintendent, J. D. Penton, presented a summary of supplies needed to the county board of education Monday.

County Superintendent of Education K. G. McCarty was directed to prepare the necessary amendment, which probably will be to $2,000, for action by the board at a meeting at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 15. The present budget allows a total of $1,400 for the three schools in the system with North Central getting $400.

Penton argued that with the limited means for the school to raise funds to support its athletic program the board would have to provide more money. He noted that gate receipts and concessions at sports events are the only sources of revenue for the athletic activity fund and the take is slender.

Board attorney Walter J. Phillips commented that intercollegiate activities should be the items supported by the athletic fund with varsity sports on a more self-sustaining basis.

On the personnel front, employment of an additional teacher was authorized at Gulfview School, Trustee S. P. Powell moving for the approval of Francis Lee; George Green was approved as a bus driver for Gulfview and Mrs. J. C. Schubert was approved to take the place of Shirley Schubert as driver at Logtown School. Burnell Lachner was employed as janitor for the North Central gymnasium and adjacent buildings at $70 a month beginning Oct. 1.

Bill of AAA Septic Tank Service was accepted on cleaning tanks, subject to approval of its performance bond. Logtown and Gulfview principals are to notify the firm when the tanks are to be cleaned.

Printing of a student handbook for North Central was authorized, the job being awarded the Hancock County Eagle for $130. Penton said the contests were compiled at a teacher workshop preceding the opening of the current session and suggested the board might want to check some items before printing as policies were involved. He added regulations listed conformed with those of the state.

While Charles B. Murphy, board president, suggested holding the matter for approval by the entire board, Powell argued

A relatively light September term of Circuit Court closed last Friday as Judge Leslie R. Grant imposed sentences in three criminal cases in which the defendants earlier had pleaded guilty.

Jack Malher, a patient at a Harrison County nursing home, was sentenced to five years in prison when he pleaded guilty to one of three counts of larceny. The other two counts were passed to the file.

Judge Grant suspended sentence in Malher's case, placed Malher on probation for five years and ordered him to remain at the nursing home under supervision of the state parole board.

Bobby Rae Evans pleaded guilty to escaping from the Hancock County jail last May 27 while serving two six-month sentences for trespass and grand larceny. Judge Grant sentenced Evans to serve one year in the county jail, with the term to begin at the end of his present term.

Sammy Earl Jones was sentenced to one year in the state penitentiary at Parchman when he pleaded guilty to the theft last June 30 of an outboard motor valued at $201.25 and owned by Herman Lewis.

Sentencing of Paul Nelson, who had pleaded guilty to child desertion, was deferred until the next term. Passed were an assault and battery charge against Archie Dadeaux who has been sick, and Raymond B. Colby, charged with embezzlement.

Criminal cases continued were Arnold Hickman, charged with armed robbery; and Floyd Fritch, charged with false personation of an officer, who passed to the file was a charge against Ohio Skaydon for receiving stolen property.

In concluding the civil docket, Judge Grant entered a default judgment of $100 in the case of Coast Electric Power Assn. vs. Sabron B. Mitchell and wife; dismissed with prejudice at cost to the defendant the case of Mrs. Earl Ramond vs. Mississippi Power Co.; overruled the plaintiff's motion for a new trial in H. G. Davis, Jr. vs. Pure Oil Co.; passed to the file City Stores Co. d/ba Maison Blanche vs. John P. Lachner, and dismissed after oral argument a bill of exceptions filed by Mrs. Pauline Necaise in a suit against her by Clyde Lachner and the board of supervisors.

Next term of court will begin the second Monday of January.
